

HI, THERE

Krista Chapman is a marketing strategist and business coach & consultant. Years back, she decided that the way we approached business was making her miserable – was making a lot of people miserable. Why couldn't we change the culture and practices around business? Why couldn't we build more ethical, intentional businesses that make us money? How could work serve our soul instead of suck it dry?

So she set out, carving her own path of business success, helping creatives, hospitality companies, wellness pros and artists build purposeful and successful companies. She uses holistic business & marketing strategies (and sometimes yoga mind tricks) to become an honest, direct voice of reason for her clients that empowers them to think differently to build better businesses.

KRISTA HAS THE ABILITY TO VIEW YOUR COMPANY'S BEST INTERESTS WITH AN OUTSIDE PERSPECTIVE. SHE KNOWS HER STUFF AND HAS THE INSIGHT TO TAKE YOU TO THE NEXT LEVEL. SHE KNOWS THE BOTTOM LINE ISN'T ALL THAT MATTERS AND SEEKS FIRST THE PASSION, MISSION AND VALUES TO ENSURE THOSE ARE INSTILLED IN ALL THINGS OUR COMPANY DOES.
